Dear Sir:- As I am soon to leave the country for the summer and find it best to settle ~~about~~ the disposition of my picture, before I go, I write to ask if you will kindly let me know whether I can take my picture away from the Corcoran Gallery in case I make arrangements for its exhibition elsewhere,

or whether it must remain hung until the gallery is closed for the summer.

Yours faithfully

Dear Mr. Barbarin:

Sometime ago, through Mr. F. B. McGuire,
I deposited ^{for examination} with the Corcoran Gallery, on behalf of Mrs. L. B. Hoff, a painting which reported to be a likeness of Christopher Columbus. Can I ask you to deliver to the bearer this picture, or, if it is not possible today, to let him know when I can send for the same.

I am, with thanks for courtesies,

Yours very truly,

Jos. K. McCammon.

Dear Sir-

I would like immediately a catalogue of the Corcoran Art Gallery. If it is only a few dimes please send it in at once and I will remit the price by return mail.

If you cannot do this I shall be very much obliged if you will send me a postal with the price, that I may order it as soon as possible.

I expect to visit Washington early next month. If the gallery is not closed, please kind enough to tell me for my principal object in going to Washington is to visit it.

Sincerely Yours.
